

Transforming Leadership Development at Texas A&M University

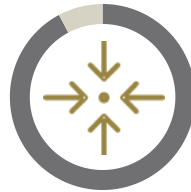

A key enabler of Texas A&M's strategic vision for 2025 to be a best place to live, work, and learn.

Texas A&M's new leadership development framework is:

- competency-based, progressive development
- designed to further one's learning, development, leadership, and impact across the Texas A&M community – in their current and future roles.

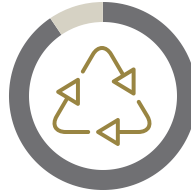

THIS IS JUST THE BEGINNING!

92.21%

Relevant to my job

90.53%

Linked to business needs

90.95%

Learning will enable improved performance

92.42%

Would recommend this program

Testimonials Directly From Participants

"From a curriculum standpoint - EXCELLENT. Then you paired it with exceptional pedagogy strategies. Very happy with the learning experience"

"A major strength of the [program] is the way in which the learning objectives can tie to our 360 results. The reflection of our 360 results and identifying key objectives to focus on with content that is relevant..."

"The materials provided are clear and I expect to reference them for the rest of my career. The instructors did a great job making the material engaging"